

Official Biography & Press Kit

C.E.O

Chibugo Esther Okafor (CEO) is an experienced founder with a demonstrated history of working in the social entrepreneurship industry. She is a skilled public speaker, leader and advocate. She is a strong business development professional and MBA graduate of the University of Oxford and member of New College. She served as the co-chair of the Oxford Women's Leadership Alliance, chair of the Oxford Africa Conference and on the secretary's committee of the Oxford Union. As one of the 25 young Nigerian women champions for UN Women Beijing +25, she has over 8 years professional experience working on gender-focused projects across communities, governmental and non-governmental organisations. She is the Founder-President of The Walk with Women and Children and also doubles up as the CEO of Kendake Honey .

Expertise & Topics

Women Empowerment Topics

Social Entrepreneurship

Diversity (gender-lens)

Speaking Style

Personable

Inspiring

Warm

Energetic

Knowledgeable

Thought-provoking

Images available at chiokafor.com/press-kit